LINCOLN PROPERTY COMPANY

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

SCOTT

Scott joined Lincoln Property in early 2001 as Senior Vice President. He is responsible for the overall management of the Denver operations. In addition to management duties, Scott is responsible for property acquisitions, and new business development for property management and leasing services. Before joining Lincoln Property Company, Scott spent 9 years as a broker in the office services group of Grubb & Ellis in the Denver, CO office. During that time he was responsible for brokering several million square feet of office space on behalf of his clients. During his 23-year tenure in commercial real estate, Scott has experienced the development, property acquisition, property management, construction management and brokerage perspectives of commercial real estate. He received his B.A. in Economics from the University of Colorado at Boulder. Scott remains active in the Denver community, holding a board position with Transportation Solutions and supporting many local charities such as Children's Hospital, Epilepsy Foundation, Craig Hospital and The First Tee.

MARK

As Vice President of Lincoln Property Company since 2002, Mark's duties have included office and industrial leasing, tenant representation, investment sales and new business development. With over 17 years in the commercial real estate business, Mark has negotiated leases and sales with hundreds of companies and worked on a wide variety of transactions. Mark spent his early years working as a broker for Buell & Company, as General Manager for CMD Realty Investors and as a broker with Colliers International, all in Denver. During that time, he was responsible for office leasing and investment sales in excess of 2.5 million square feet throughout the Denver area. Mark holds a degree in business with an emphasis in real estate and construction management from The University of Denver where he was an All-American swimmer. He has been involved in various civic organizations including co-captain for Team Research Rider's - a commercial real estate cycling team established to benefit Children's Hospital and on the regional advisory board for the Salvation Army.

SCOTT CROSBIE

In May 2003, Scott and a single broker formed Crosbie Real Estate Group, Inc. (CREG) - nicknamed "The Group" - with the intention of creating a truly unique, performance-based company in the real estate brokerage community. Scott's vision, which is now a reality, was to create a team atmosphere with brokers working hand-in-hand, openly sharing individual market knowledge and industry expertise. From inception, CREG established an impressive client list that recognized the value of this approach. Scott began his career in retail real estate in 1994 at Goldberg Property Associates (GPA) specializing in landlord representation, leasing both existing shopping centers and new developments. He specialized in landlord representation, leasing both existing shopping centers and new developments. This foundation allowed him to retain both national and regional clients such as Wal-Mart, Wendy's International, Peaberry Coffee and American National Insurance Company.

ANDY BUETTNER

Andy joined CREG in April of 2005, bringing with him over 13 years of experience in retail leasing and tenant representation. At CREG, Andy focuses on helping national and regional tenants with their site-selection efforts, and on leasing retail space on behalf of landlords. Andy's current clients include 7-Eleven Inc., Kroger, Kentro Development, Magna Development, CorePower Yoga, HealthStyles Exercise Equipment, Rite Aid Drug, A World of Tile, Cuba Cuba Restaurants, and Gotcha Frozen Yogurt.

JEFF GERMAIN

Jeff joined Crosbie Real Estate Group in 2012. He has about twenty years of retail brokerage experience and has worked in several western states, including Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Texas, Utah, and Wyoming. Jeff worked with Scott Crosbie and Scott Steputis while at Goldberg Property Associates, primarily representing Wal-Mart and leasing Wal-Mart-anchored developments. Jeff has completed a wide variety of deals, including small-shop, mid-sized, big-box and ground-leases, as well as pad sales, land sales, shopping center acquisitions and dispositions.
